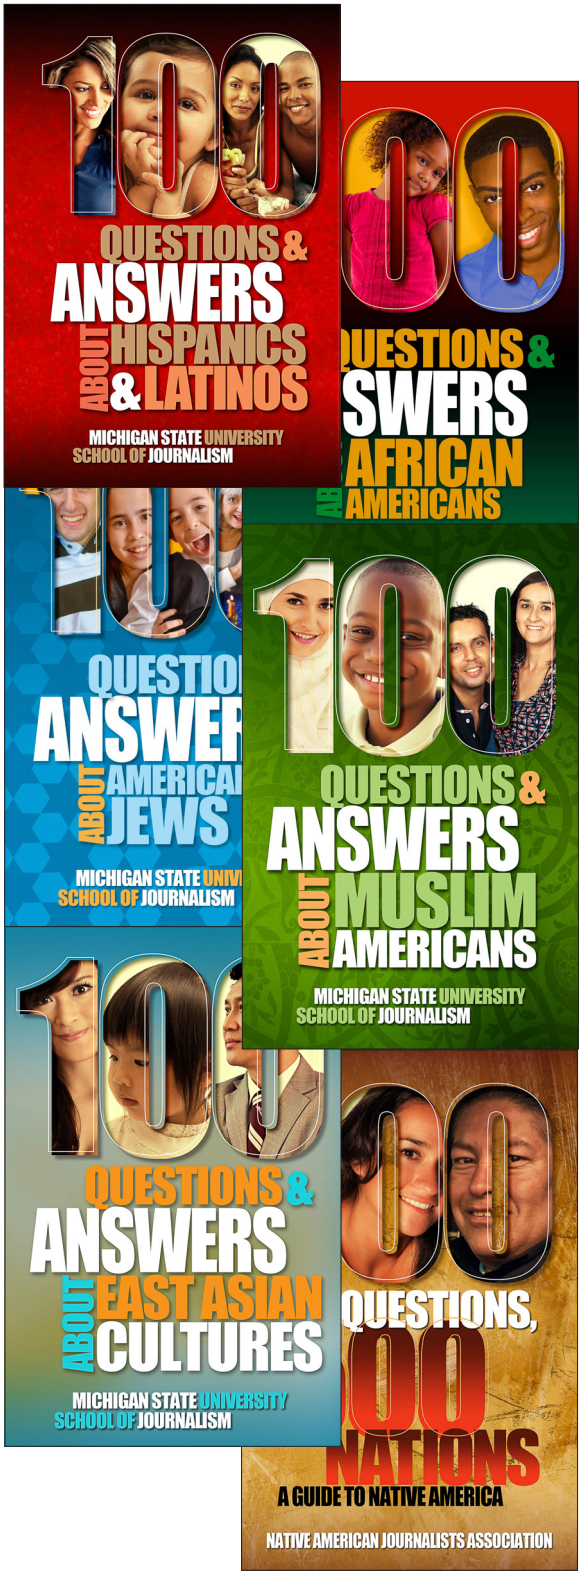
Cultural Competence Guides

from the Michigan State University School of Journalism

Equip your organization with the most up-to-date cultural competence materials available today. The Michigan State University Bias Busters book series features info-packed guides covering individual cultural, ethnic and religious groups. These books are ideal for community distribution, public information sessions and organization-wide cultural competence training. Every guide has been vetted by a blue-ribbon panel to ensure accuracy.

In 2019, leaders in major corporations, nonprofits and community agencies are working to improve community relations. MSU's Bias Busters program is published by the School of Journalism, which is nationally known for its commitment to teaching fairness, accuracy and balance. In easy-to-read text, enhanced with graphics and multimedia, these guides "answer the questions everyone is asking but nobody is answering." Topics include culture, traditions, religion, vocabulary, history and identity.

For a limited time, we are offering:
the Bias Busters Library of 11 volumes.
Each set costs only $120.00, plus shipping.
This offer is valid until Oct. 31, 2019.
Contact info@FrontEdgePublishing.com today for more information, to place an order or inquire about bulk rates.

Order the Ethnic/Religion Collection today:


100 Questions and Answers About Chaldean Americans
100 Questions and Answers About African Americans
100 Questions and Answers About Hispanics and Latinos
100 Questions and Answers About Arab Americans
100 Questions and Answers About East Asian Cultures
100 Questions, 500 Nations: A guide to Native America
100 Questions and Answers About Americans
100 Questions and Answers About American Jews
100 Questions and Answers About Muslim Americans
100 Questions and Answers About Immigrants to the U.S.
100 Questions and Answers About Indian Americans